Church Affairs

Some of Harry Perry's friends have been kidding him. Harry is a brakeman on the Texas and Pacific and is known as the hig boy with the bigger laugh, all the way to Toyah. He started as caller and has been hammering away ever since. Some one started a story that Perry had been married. The report went east by fast freight to the end of the division. It also percolated into the papers and Harry is having a hard time explaining the joke. He is not married. He has enjoyed, the joke as much as his friends, but he says it is putting him in an awful hole with his fair friends.

The Philathea and Baraca Bible study classes of the First Presbytevians church had a very enjoyable joint party at the church pariors Thursday and the bigget laught on the piano by Miss Jenevive Anderson. Clovis, N. M., April 5.—Capt. W. A. Neison, of the 14th United States infantry of Denver. Colo., was here to inspect the local militia. Company K made a fine showing, the best of any company inspected by Capt. Neison in the entire state. There were 44 men in the company. In addressing the men, Capt. Neison said in part:

"The regular army of the United States is not sufficient to meet any emergency which might be suddenly thrust upon us, so we must depend on the militia, hence you can see that we have a very vital interest in you, and it is our aim to do everything we can for you, because we may need you at any time. You have furnished the best turn-out of any company in the state it has been my pleasure to inspect, and for your encouragement I ought also it of any company in the state it has been my pleasure to inspect, and for your encouragement I ought also it as the control of any company in the state if have yet inspected.

Captala Blumlein of the local company reasonated with a state of the control o Has Yet Inspected. Captain Blumlein of the local company responded with an address of appreciation, stating that the success of company K was largely due to the faithfulness of the men in the ranks and their willingness to co-operate with their officers.
